Work Values Questionnaire

This exercise will help you think about the things that are important to you in your future vocation. Choose your top ten values and then rank the top 5.

Source: Adapted from 'Career Coach' by Corinne Mills 2011 Trotman

Value	Top Ten	Rank 1-10
1. To be well liked and respected by others at work
2. To control your own priorities and schedules
3. To work in a role that supports your personal life
4. To be challenged and have new problems to solve
5. To have power and influence
6. To have social contact with others
7. To use creativity and self-expression
8. To achieve personal development and growth
9. To make a difference to the team/organisation
10.To work and live where you want
11.To earn as much money as possible
12.To increase your seniority and status
13.To participate in decision-making
14.To be appreciated for your efforts
15.To be able to travel
16.To use physical skills and abilities
17.To work in accordance with personal, spiritual or ethical ideals
18.To work in a role compatible with health and fitness aims
19.To have intellectual challenge
20.To take risks
21.To be offered further training and learning new skills
22.To work with stimulating people
23.To have security and predictability
24.To have variety and change
25.To identify with the cause or product of the organisation
26.To be recognised as an expert
27.To be rewarded for your success
28.To have leadership responsibility
29.To help improve individual, social and/or political well-being 30.To have considerable variety in the working role
31. Others?
32.
33.		